

Learning Station

Windows 10 Magnifier

Most computers today have “built-in” accessibility, and Windows 10 is no exception. Magnifier is a screen magnifier that can help a low vision student access any computer that runs Windows without installing special software. Other commercial screen magnifiers are available with additional features that magnifier does not have currently.

Preview the following information: https:// support.microsoft.com/en-us/help/11542/windows-use-magnifier

If you had a low vision student that was going to use a computer with Windows 10, and it was decided that the build-in magnifier was appropriate, what keyboard commands would you emphasize?

Add these notes to your study guide.